ACTIVITIES INSTRUCTIONS

PHOTO FIND

DESCRIPTION

Use your skills of observation and the cryptic clues to find where these photos were taken around the Log Cabin Camp property. Work with a buddy and see how many you can find in the allocated time. Keep your eyes open while you wander around, so you don't miss anything!

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Activity Leader should collect equipment from camp staff and proceed with group to the starting point which can be the Main Hall, Verandah or under the Shade Sails.
2. Participants can work in pairs or groups of three.
3. Activity Leader should instruct each group that they must locate and identify the item shown on the photo card, with the help of the clue. Leaders should remind participants not to leave the camp property or cross any fences.
4. Each pair takes one of the 25 photo cards and reads the clue, then heads off with the card to find the answer.
5. When item found, answers is written on their answer sheet and photo card is returned and another taken, until all are found, or time runs out.
6. When all groups (including all individuals within groups) have returned, scores should then be collated and then winners can be nominated.
7. Activity Leader with groups should then return all equipment to a Log Cabin Camp staff member.

LOCATION

All photos are located within the boundary of the Log Cabin Camp. The starting point should be somewhere central, like the verandah at the end of the main hall.
